The panel will be composed of one (1) Lieutenant or Commander, one (1) Sergeant, one (1) Police Officer or Detective from the Unit with the vacancy, and one (1) Union Representative. The Union Representative shall be selected by the Union. 2. Should the Union member found liable or guilty, the aforementioned pay and emoluments shall be suspended and appropriate disciplinary action may be taken against the subject employee.

L. The City agrees that there shall be no indiscriminate electronic surveillance of employees. Nothing herein shall preclude such surveillance as may be required to fulfill the requirements of any Federal Grant. Further, nothing shall preclude electronic surveillance in a criminal investigation wherein the employee may be the subject of such investigation. Finally, any such investigation shall be carried out pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida and the applicable Federal Laws regarding the right to privacy.

M. Upon the filing of an information or indictment charging the employee with a felony, the employee may be suspended without pay or may remain in with-pay status with full emoluments of office during the investigation period at the discretion of the Police Chief. The Police Chief may invoke without pay status at any time during the investigation period. The investigation period for purposes of this subsection applies only to any investigation of the criminal charges after an information or indictment has been filed and/or any criminal prosecution that might follow. If the felony charge is subsequently dropped or dismissed or the employee is acquitted of the felony charge, he/she will be reimbursed for all lost pay (excluding any overtime or detail pay that the employee claims he/she would have worked while suspended without pay) from the date he/she was first suspended without pay until disposition of the charge, or, if the City terminates the employee prior to disposition of the charge, until the date the employee was terminated.

ARTICLE 18. LEGAL DEFENSE

The City acknowledges that civil suits against employees growing out of their duties in the scope of their employment are covered by Florida Statutes and accepts the responsibility of providing defense insofar as the Florida Statutes require. Upon reclassification to the officer rank, the seniority of these members shall be established according to their original date of appointment to officer rank and not the date of the reclassification. Members shall be called back from layoff according to their seniority in the rank from which they were laid off.

Police officers shall serve a twelve (12) month probationary period.

Police personnel working off-duty will continue to be paid by off-duty employers. The City shall not assess off-duty wages of Bargaining Unit members.

Each Officer who works off-duty will be required to file a "Request for Off-Duty Officer" form. Disapproval/approval to work off-duty will be determined by the Police Chief or his designated representative and in accordance with Civil Service Rules and Regulations.

Off-duty work of Bargaining Unit Members shall be subject to the following provisions:

a) Bargaining Unit members are prohibited from working off-duty for a period of time in excess of five (5) hours on a day in which the officer is scheduled to work the midnight shift.

b) Bargaining Unit members are prohibited from working off-duty for more than twenty-five (25) hours during each and any week, with the exception that this limitation shall not apply to such Members working off-duty during annual leave.

c) Bargaining Unit members are prohibited from working more than one off-duty job of greater than 5 hours and a midnight shift back to back without an 8 hour break in between them.

Exceptions to provisions a, b & c may be made by the Police Chief or his designee. Policies and procedures concerning off-duty work and off-duty wages shall be mutually agreed upon by the Union and the Police Chief.

Any Bargaining Unit member who is found to have sustained a compensable line-of duty injury while working on an assigned off-duty law enforcement assignment authorized by the City will, for the purpose of this Article, be considered "on the job" and will be granted Workers' Compensation benefits in accordance with applicable Florida State Statutes; and will be granted supplemental pay from the date of the injury or illness in accordance with Article VII of Chapter 15, Sections 15-201 through 15-207 of the Code of Ordinances of the City of North Miami. 7. Following a determination that an employee violated this Article, the employee may be subject to discipline up to and including termination from employment. However, if an employee is subjected to random testing for alcohol, and a determination is made that the employee had an alcohol concentration of 0.02 or higher, but lower than 0.04, then the employee, so long as the determination is the first such determination during his employment with the City, shall be referred to a rehabilitation program and subject to discipline up to, but excluding, termination.
